

Address

Dear Parents,
Teachers, and Friends - It is
with great pleasure we bid you
welcome to these
graduation exercises. We feel very indebted to you all for assisting us to gain
this important
goal, in the broad field of education. We have strived hard
for eight years
to reach this

for something better. When we have gained, with
in reason, the
goal we aim for
we hope you
can all feel justly
proud of our attainments. Our school days have been more of a
pleasure than a struggle and
we ^{trust} hope it has been a pleasure
to you as well.

Again we wish to thank you
for your kind-

goal. We know
we could not have reached it had
it not been for
our parents, friends
and teachers. If we have wasted time
in our struggle
for higher education,
we only wish to
redeem ourselves,
in the future,
by making the
best of our many opportunities. We are trying to set
our aim high
enough to keep us always striving

ness. We bid
you welcome to
these exercises
and hope you
will enjoy
your short
visit with us.

I
Thank
you

" - " - "

- 1 The class will sing the opening song, "Dawn of Maytime."
- 2 The Invocation will be given by Nellie Anderson.
- 3 { My Address }
- 4 Thora Rasmussen will favor us with a piano solo "Longing for home."
- 5 Our next number is a prize reading, "Asleep at the Switch" by Clifford Handrup.
- 6 ~~Only a Dream~~ The ~~Prize~~ will be given by Clair Thompson.
- 7 Mr. Ray Lund (president of the board of education) will give the address to the graduates.
- 8 Comments on the students will be given by principal George L. Beal.
- 9 Awarding of Diplomas by Christian Killardsen.
- 10 Our last number is the class song (words by Clair C. F.)
- 11 Milton Armstrong will give the "prognostication".
- 12 Next, is a sextette, Pickaninny Landman by the following students, Helen Thompson, Lucy Madsen, Phyllis Stevenson, Nettie Hackwell, Vera Bagby and Gail Bertelson.
- 13 The "Valedictory" will be given by Alice Humphrey.
- 14 A Trombone solo.
- 15 Woodrow Nelson will give the "Benediction".
- 16 ~~Etha~~ We want to thank you for your kind attention, also those who have taken part on the program including President Ray Lund. The Parents are now invited to the Social Hall!
- That's!
- All!!

President's Address
8th
Grade

Elba Quinn
Pres. of 8th grade
This is her
address given at 8th grade
graduation
exercise.

given by Elba
Quinn