

APRIL 17, 1936

Card of Thanks.

We, the family of Mrs. Pauline Bigler, express our thanks and appreciation to all kind friends who attended and assisted at the funeral services of our beloved mother. Also those who provided the splendid dinner for all after the services.

John Bigler, Ellen M. Jones, Lydia Springer, Arnold Bigler, Walter Bigler, Mary Quinn.

The Midway Bigler relatives also express their appreciation for all kindness shown to them while in Mt. Pleasant.

Pauline Ott Bigler

MT. PLEASANT—Mrs. Pauline Ott Bigler, 83, widow of Arnold Bigler and a pioneer resident of this city, died Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lydia B. Springer, in Park City.

She is survived by three sons and three daughters, Walter Bigler, Mrs. Mary B. Quinn and Mrs. Ella B. Jones, Salt Lake City; Mrs. Springer, Park City; John Bigler, Indianola, and Arnold Bigler, Farmington.

The body will be brought to Mt. Pleasant for funeral services and interment under direction of the Jacobs mortuary. The services will probably be Monday afternoon in the North ward L. D. S. chapel.

Funeral Held For Mrs. Pauline Bigler

Mrs. Pauline Ott Bigler, 83, widow of Jacob Arnold Bigler and former resident of Mt. Pleasant, died at the Park City Miners hospital Friday morning, April 10, 1936, of ailments incident to old age. Mrs. Bigler spent the later years of her life in Park City with her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Springer.

Mrs. Bigler was born January 6, 1853, in Zell, Zurich, Switzerland, a daughter of Henry and Elizabeth Winkler Ott. After becoming a convert to the L. D. S. church she came to Utah with her mother, three sisters and a grandmother in 1871, her father having died in Switzerland. She married Jacob Arnold Bigler, also a native of Switzerland, in the endowment house, October 1872. Her husband died April 8, 1916. Mrs. Bigler was the mother of nine children, six of whom survive. They are John Bigler of Indianola, Mrs. Sam Jones, W. A. Bigler, Mrs. Mary Quinn of Salt Lake City, A. W. Bigler of Sandy and Mrs. J. R. Springer of Park City.

She is also survived by 37 grandchildren, 32 great-grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Lulsa Kunsler, Rosetta, Utah.

Funeral services were held here Monday at 1 p. m. in the North ward chapel with Bishop Henry P. Olsen presiding.

Singing "O My Father," by the choir. The invocation was by Bishop James Larsen, followed by a song by the choir "Sister Thou Wast Mild and Lovely"; solo, "Lay My Head Beneath a Rose," by Mrs. Pearl Peterson; solo, "Tired" by Mrs. Clarice Olsen; the closing song by the choir was "Resting Now from Care and Sorrow." The speakers were: Fredrick Ott, Bishop A. L. Peterson, Mrs. Wilford Rasmussen, President H. C. Jacobs and Bishop Henry P. Olsen. A. F. Reynolds gave the benediction.

The grave was dedicated by Mads Anderson.

Interment was in the City cemetery under direction of the Jacobs Mortuary.